

Author Biographies

Francesc Morata is professor of Political Sciences at the Autonomous University of Barcelona and holds a Jean Monnet Chair ad Personam in European Integration. He is a former Director of the IUEE (2004-2009) and the Masters Programmes on European Integration and European Cooperation Policies (2006-2009). He leads the Research Group on Multilevel Governance in the EU (EUgov). He is a visiting professor at the universities of Florence, Bologna, Bologna University Centre (Buenos Aires), ITAM (Mexico), Nanjing and Kunming (China). His main research areas are Europeanization, European public policies, multilevel governance and environmental studies. He has published extensively in these fields.